PANTONE™

Pantone is the trendsetter of colors, tinting our world and constantly improving the field of color communication. In an exclusive partnership with Pantone—the world’s most powerful and influential brand in color—BrownTrout is thrilled to expand this visual embodiment of passion, flair, and elegance into the world of calendars and planners. With formats ranging from our classic square wall calendar to planners and journals in a variety of sizes, date ranges, and seasonally curated trending colors—including the Pantone Color of the Year—our extensive line of Pantone products has something to fulfill every style and need. Stickers included too!

Compact Planner
Popular 5.25” x 8.25” format; two date ranges or non-dated.

Compact Journal
Trending colors wrap a 192 lined-page journal, perfect for business or home.

Square Wall Calendar
Twelve months of beauty and color with stickers to color the rest of your world.

Color invariably conveys moods that attach themselves to human feelings or reactions. Part of our psychic development, color is tied to our emotions as well as our intellect. Every color has meaning that we inherently sense or have learned about, which enables us to recognize the messages and meanings delivered.
